

Don't let a medical crisis become a financial one.

Think of people you know who have suffered a critical illness like cancer, a heart attack or a stroke...

Would their lives have been simpler if they had received a lump-sum cash amount, like $50,000, upon diagnosis?

Would that have eased their worry about covering medical bills?

With critical illness insurance, you will receive a lump-sum cash amount upon the first confirmed diagnosis of a covered illness or medical procedure. Cash amounts available from $50,000 to $500,000.

Perhaps the best part... the cash is paid directly to you, to use any way you choose.

Critical Illness insurance helps people focus on recovery instead of how they are going to pay the doctors.
